

South Florida FAASTeam, South Florida FSDO SO19 presents:

Flying the Bahamas and Caribbean

Flying to the Bahamas, Caymans, Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico is safe, inexpensive, easy and completely doable in a single engine aircraft. This presentation will cover everything you need to know and do: including a review of the required documents; U.S. and foreign customs and ATC procedures, including the new eAPIS system and the 406 elt (not required). Learn about fees, flight plans, how to Fly Over Cuban; charts, fuel availability and current prices and arrival/departure procedures. Watch spectacular front seat approach videos of some amazing destination airports that are much closer than you imagined.

Our sponsors are offering a FREE pancake with sausage breakfast to all attendees from 10 am to Noon! The class will be held promptly at 12:00 pm. Participants and guests can spend the rest of the day trekking / exploring the area. Overnight underwing Dry Camping is permitted for a $10 fee.

Directions: Fly into Everglades City Airport or by car follow the signs South from US 41 on County Road 29 (3.2 miles) then turn right on Begonia Street (.2 mi.) Continue onto Copeland Avenue (.6 mi). Cross through the round about then continue on Copeland Avenue (.5 mi.) Turn right onto Airport Road (.2 mi).
